Attendance

Regular attendance is crucial for your child's academic success and personal growth. We encourage parents to ensure all pupils attend school every day and only miss school if they are genuinely too unwell to attend.

Hopefully, there will be less germs after Christmas and attendance will rise again.

Well done to Year 5 for having the best attendance this week.

Greenheart Updates/School Developments

GREENHEART
LEARNING PARTNERSHIP

This week has been amazing with two outstanding concerts put on by our Key Stage 2 pupils.

Thank you to Kingsmead High School and Chadsmoor Methodist Church for being so accommodating.

All of our children's performances have been truly magical and filled with the spirit of Christmas.

As we approach the end of term, I wanted to take a moment to express my thanks for all of your support throughout the term. Your involvement has been instrumental in making this term a successful and enriching experience for all our students.

This holiday season is a time for reflection, joy and togetherness. I hope you and your families have a wonderful Christmas filled with love, laughter and cherished moments.

We look forward to welcoming your children back in the New Year (Tuesday 7th January 2025) ready for more learning adventures.

This morning, 84 children were treated to games and music in the hall for having 100% attendance this term. They also received chocolate, a small gift, certificate and sticker.

I wonder if we could aim for over 100 pupils with 100% attendance in the Spring Term?

Thank You to Our Community Partners

We are so lucky to have such strong links with many community partners. These include Dunelm, Hednesford Lions, Morrisons, Pye Green PTFA and many more. Their support throughout the year has enabled us to provide for many of our families this Christmas and this will continue into 2025.

With January being a tricky time financially for many, we have many donations of brand new, high-quality toys and games. If anyone would like support with birthday presents for January and February, please contact Mrs Snell or Mrs Downing.
